Greater outcomes with every transportation dollar

Supported more than 16,000 jobs in Virginia

Generated nearly $3.5 billion of economic impact statewide

Created $490 million in contracts to small and disadvantaged businesses

Employed more than 250 contractors – more than 75% based in Virginia

"The 495 Express Lanes commitment to small, women and minority-owned businesses is the largest in Virginia's history for a single transportation project."

– Governor Robert F. McDonnell

First-time HOV service on the Capital Beltway

New connectivity for buses and improved transportation service to Virginia's largest employment centers and retail destinations

Creating jobs and stimulating the economy

The $2 billion project was made possible by an innovative financing strategy that incorporated public funding, federal financing tools, and private investment

New choices and enhancing 495 for travelers

24/7 operations center and full video coverage

80,000 linear feet of new sound wall protection

58 new bridges and overpasses

New access to Tysons Corner and Merrifield

Bicycle and pedestrian access across every new bridge

